You have goals and expectations about your financial investments. You want a plan that helps you prepare – for anticipated benchmarks and also for unexpected life events. That's why it's important to have a financial advisor who knows you, understands your interests, objectives, and concerns, and provides you with thoughtful options to help you get where you want to be – in five years, ten years, and beyond.

"There's no shortcut to these important conversations," said Juston Dobbs, MBA, CDEFA®, CFP®, Senior Vice President – Investments at Dobbs Wealth Management Group of Wells Fargo Advisors in Sherman. "We believe it's important to listen carefully, gathering information and getting to know our clients – not just initially, but throughout our relationship. These valuable exchanges help us provide a broad array of tools, resources and solutions to help you succeed financially."

The right fit also helps you feel comfortable with your financial advisor, your plan and your progress so you better understand risk factors and avoid common investing mistakes. With over 20 years of experience, Juston knows the value of productive advisor/client relationships in helping people stay on the path toward long-term goals.

Whether you are just starting out or nearing retirement, Juston can provide you with top-notch services and the attention you expect and deserve.

Juston and Amber Dobbs consider clients as good neighbors. "We're active in the community, serving on many boards and committees," said Dobbs. "We see our clients at football games, at the grocery store, at church. We enjoy the bond that results from taking time to know and respect one another. We want to do what's right for you."
